LEARN TO PLAY BETTER BASKETEALL!

Prep and Tribe players who would like to play better basketball should take advantage of the Monday and Wednesday practices. The last two weeks have been spent working on dribbling, passing, and offensive and defensive play. Some of the younger players have been doing much better. If you take the time to practice, you will be able to help your team more. If you make too many fouls, cause too many turnovers, or never score a basket, it is due to the fact that you do not practice! All of the better players take time out to practice, and so must you if you want to play better!

Those who were here last Monday were Fred and Barrett Wills, Greg Smith, Charles Hodges, Isaias Soto, Anthony Pacheco, David Ruszkowski, Pich Salazar, Tom Seegert, Frian Paulus, Adam Such, Jim Slotowski, Prian Hoeltzer, Mike Charbonneau, Sean Conneely, Steve Ortiz, and Steven Christopoulos. There was a small crowd of Tom Cooney, Elmir Becirovic, Chris Kaihatsu, Phil Quinn, Alan Lainez, Frank Hashimoto, Gabriel Steffens, Brian Brownlow, David Kippes, and Brian Hoeltzer on Wednesday.

Remember that the practices are held at 4:00 each Monday and Wednesday. It is not necessary to stay for two hours. If you only have a half hour, take advantage of it!

PREP MEETING NEWS & LIFT UPDATE By: Kathy Shipman

There was a little drop last week in the attendance to 20 Preps, with the Bobcat/Cougars leadingthe league with 7 members. Attending for the team were Bill Burman, Dan Nieman, Elmir Becirovic, Patrick Quinn, Scott Stemmen, Isaias Soto, and David Kippes. The Bee/Locusts were next with a good group of 6 - Joe Valino, Sam Dean, Brian Hoeltzer, Joe Marks, Michael Folan, and Lenny Shipman. The Bucc/Pirates have to work on their team as the only members out were Pedro Hernandez, Walter Luna, Brian Jarvis, and Nate Marzen. The Falcons were low with only Doug Kalous, new member Charles Hodges, and Chris Blasek. If you can all make the effort to attend your games at 4:00 and 5:00, why can't you make the same effort for your meetings?

The activity was the second test in the LIFT Tournament, sit ups. The boys had I minute to do as many as they could, and there were some very fine efforts! Scott Stemmen led the Bobcat/Cougars with 44 sit ups. Isaias Soto did 40, David Kippes 39, and Patrick Quinn 38. Joe Marks led the Bee/Locusts with 42, and was followed by Brian Hoeltzer with 41, and Lenny Shipman with 36. Walter Luna had the best total on the Bucc/Pirates with 38. Brian Jarvis was next with 36, and Pedro Hernandez did 33. Doug Kalous led the Falcons with 36, and Charles Hodges did 34. Be sure to bring all of your teammates out next week when you will do pull ups and the broad jump!

PREP SATURDAY REVIEW By: Kathy Shipman

Last Saturday, the Bucc/Pirates won 18-11 over the Bobcat/Cougars. Brian Jarvis was the high scorer with 12 points. Nate Marzen added 4 points, and Pedro Hernandez had a basket. Mark Nagy and Orlando Martinez did a good job on defense.

The Bobcat/Cougars had a rough start and were down 10-2 at the half. They came alive in the second half, however, and did a great job against the first place team. They have improved steadily over the last two weeks. Isaias Soto led the team with 6 points. Oscar Soto added 3 points, and Scott Stemmen had 2 points. Other players were Victor Buelvas, Dan Wieman, David Kippes, and Dan Badillo.

The Falcons defeated the Bee/Locusts 21-11 in a tough game. It started out as if the Falcons would win easily as they led 13-0 at the half. The Bee/Locusts worked very hard in the second half and made a good comeback. John Anderson led the Falcons with 10 points. Tim Michalski added 5 points, and Gabriel Steffens, Ted Romano, and Doug Kalous each scored 2 points. Other players were new member Charles Hodges and Phillip Stumfoll.

PREP SATURDAY REVIEW

The Bee/Locusts had only 5 out for the game, and they were pretty tired in the second half. You need all of your players! Lenny Shipman scored 9 points, and Brian Hoeltzer added a basket. Others were Joe Valino, Donald Townsend, and KC Kneitz.

BOBCAT/COUGARS DEFEAT BEE/LOCUSTS By: Kathy Shipman

The Bobcat/Cougars played their best game of the season last Thursday in a 30-18 win overthe Bee/Locusts. The Bee/Locusts held a 12-6 lead at the half, but a very strong second half turned the game around. Isaias Soto had the hot hand as he poured in 17 points. Elmir Becirovic scored 5 points, and Oscar Soto and Patrick Quinn each scored 4 points. Others who led the comeback were Victor Buelvas, Dan Nieman, David Kippes, and Bill Burman. Keep up the great work, and thank Layla for helping you so much!

The Bee/Locusts got off to such a good start, but seemed to give up in the second half. You have to play just as hard when you are losing as you do when you are winning! Lack of effort is what causes a failure. Try to use the backboard to bank your shots in, rather than trying to shoot them directly in from under the basket. We should see some of you at the Monday and Wednesday practices.

Joe Valino and Lenny Shipman tied for scoring honors with 8 points each, and Brian Hoeltzer scored 2 points. Others who played were Joe Marks, Michael Folan, Brian Brownlow, John Colletta, and Sam Dean. It was good to see you improve your attendance!

BUCC/PIRATES HOLD ONTO FIRST PLACE! By: Kathy Shipman

The Bucc/Pirates defeated the Falcons 37-26 in one of the best games of the whole season last Thursday. Even though they lost, the Falcons surprised everyone with their fantastic attendance of 12 players! They have never had that many out for any game, and I am very proud of them for their hard work! I hope you can do the same thing for the rest of your games and meetings!

The Bucc/Pirates led 22-16 at the end of thewell-played first half. The Falcons came back in the second half, but the Bucc/Pirates were able to hold on. Brian Jarvis played a fine game, and led his team with 25 points. Nate Marzen scored 8 points, and Walter Luna and Domincik Aleman each scored 2 points. It was Dominick's first basket! Others who played very well were Eric Roeder and Orlando Martinez.

The Falcons were led by Tim Michalski, who scored 20 points in another fine performance. John Anderson scored 4 points, and Gabriel Steffens scored 2 points.

Also doing a good job were Ted Romano, Greg Smith, Chris Blasek, Fred and Barrett Wills, Phillip Stumfoll, Doug Kalous, Charles Hodges, and Chris MacKenzie. The Bucc/Pirates won the game, but the Falcons won something more important by having so many players having fun together!

THIS WEEK IN TRIBE BASKETBALL By: Paul Flatley

Last Saturday, the Wildcats and Pirates came up winners. There were also two big disappointments as the Vikings and Wasps forfeited. If either team forfeits again, it will be dropped for the rest of the season as well as the tournament. The Vikings have 10 players and the Wasps have 8, so the captains have to get busy and follow up on their responsibility to the team. If they can't handle it, we can have a new election. If your team can't get 5 out for basketball, how do you expect to play softball?

Alan Lainez led the Wildcats to a 55-31 win over the Bobcats with 18 points. Wayne Kowalski scored 17 points, Rich Ramos 16 points, and Merim Becirovic had 4 points. Paul Butros played well for the Bobcats and scored 14 points. Franklin Ko scored 10 points, Matthew Joung had 5 points, and John Joung scored a basket. They have a good offense, but need to practice their defensive play.

Bill Miscevich and Steve Christopoulos each scored 8 points while leading the Pirates to a 33-2 win over the Locusts. Yong Kuk had 6 points, Kevin Nolan 3 points, and Marlon Longid and Anthony Pacheco each scored a basket. Michael Forte scored the only Locust basket. The Locusts did very well the game before, but fell apart for this one. Let's see you guys at practice on Monday!

VIKINGS SWAT LOCUSTS By: Russ Larsen

The Vikings defeated the Locusts 29-8 last Tuesday. The first half saw great play by both teams, and the Vikings held a narrow 9-8 lead. Chris Anish put them in front with 5 points, and Marc Stasinos added 4 points. Manuel Navarette scored the 8 Locust points.

The Locusts tired in the second half and lost a player due to bad sportsmanship. This enabled the Vikings to score 20 unanswered points and win the game. Ron Hock paced the Vikings with 8 points.

Marc Stasinos and Chris Anish each chipped in with 6 points to close out the scoring. Other Vikings were Nick Viverito and Ed Luna. Also playing for the Locusts were Michael Forte, Michael Carter, Mark Abbott, Jeff Flowers, and Larry Cariato. Both teams could have had better attendance, and should improve before the next game!

MOMS ARE SAVING LABELS

The NBC Mothers' Club is saving labels from all Campbells soup and bean products, as well as all Del Monte fruits and vegetables. They can be redeemed for free equipment. Thanks to Mike Charbonneau, Brian Hoeltzer, Justin Holland, and Brian Diebold for bringing in some labels last week. Just save yours and turn them in at a Moms meeting or the office.

Both teams played a pretty even second half, and the Pirateswere able to hold on for a 4 point win over the first half champs. This will tighten up their race for the second half! Anthony Pacheco led the Pirates with 4 points in the half. Kevin Molan scored 2 points, and Karl Longid added a free throw. The Falcons were led in the second half by the 4 points from David Ruszkowski, and a basket by Adam Such.

Others for the Falcons were Jim Slotowski, Vince Romano, Ricky Cruz, Steve Blasek, Brian Howard, Matthew Smtih, Brian Paulus, and Tom Kalous. Keep your team strong the rest of the way so you'll be ready for softball!
